

ANABEL KRASNOTSVETOVA

I was born in Russia, Moscow. Since early childhood I felt a need to create. In elementary school art was my favorite subject. My mother supported my interests in took me to art school where I learned basics of academic drawing and sculpture. I planned to continue with art as my degree, but I was scouted by modeling agency. I always was fascinated by world of fashion, so with out thinking twice I picked marketing as my degree, because I could do it long distance and modeling became my first priority.
